September 2015

Dear Colleagues,

Each year the Faculty Senate awards the James W. McLamore Outstanding Service Award, the Outstanding Teaching Award, and the Distinguished Faculty Scholar Award. These highly prestigious awards recognize the exceptional efforts of our colleagues in the three key areas of academic life.

We encourage you to submit nominations to the Senate for any or all of these distinguished awards. Recipients are selected based on the results of a highly competitive peer-review process. The web addresses below provide nomination criteria and more detailed information regarding the awards.

Nomination materials for each of the awards are due to the Faculty Senate office by Monday, October 12, 2015.

The James W. McLamore Outstanding Service Award recognizes service above and beyond the call of duty by a member of the University community.
