Who Killed the Electric Car?

In 1996 electric cars began to appear on roads all over California. They were quiet and fast, produced no exhaust, and ran without gasoline. Ten years later, these futuristic cars were almost entirely gone. What happened? And what is happening now? (92 minutes)

Panelists
- Trae Williamson, Williamson Cadillac; Charles Whalen, Charging Director for the Electric Vehicle Association of Florida

Presented as part of UM Ethics Programs’ Eighth Annual Environmental Ethics Symposium; cosponsored by University of Miami Launch Pad (www.miami.edu/thelaunchpad)

Tuesday, April 7
The Times of Harvey Milk

By turns humorous and tragic, this documentary chronicles the life and death of Harvey Milk. The first openly gay politician in the U.S., a neighborhood activist, and a symbol of gay political achievement, Milk was—for many—a martyr to his cause. (90 minutes)

Panelists
- Christian Gay, M.A. ’06, Film and Queer Studies, School of Communication
- Gema Perez-Sanchez, Women’s Studies, College of Arts and Sciences
- Elizabeth Schwartz, J.D. ’97, attorney and family mediator

Tuesday, April 14
One Water

Filmed in 15 countries, narrated by UM President Donna E. Shalala, edited and scored by UM faculty, and supported by the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation, this documentary probes the global fresh-water crisis and makes a compelling case that access to clean water is a basic human right. (68 minutes)

Speaker
- Sanjeev Chatterjee, Vice Dean, School of Communication

All events are free and open to alumni, students, and the UM community; no RSVP is necessary. Screenings take place at 6:15 p.m. at the Bill Cosford Cinema on the Coral Gables campus; snacks will be provided at 6:00 p.m. For more information, please contact the University of Miami Alumni Association at 305-284-2872 or alumni@miami.edu.
